CORAM : DR.S. RADHAKRISHNAN &

SMT.ROSHAN DALVI, JJ.

Dated : 23rd August, 2007

P.C. :

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the Applicant and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the Respondent-State.

2. We have perused our earlier order dated 29th March 2007 wherein it is clearly mentioned that the Applicant is suffering from paralysis of right side and Hypertension with Ischemic heart disease. The Applicant is a rickshaw driver and is not in a position to meet the medical expenses. The Applicant's son is in jail and, therefore, his medical expenses are being borne by his relatives and friends. It is also clearly mentioned in the said order that the Applicant-Accused is totally confined to bed and he is unable to make any movement. The Court directed in the said order that if the Applicant wants to apply for further extension, he will have to produce proof of medical bills or prescriptions issued in that behalf. The Applicant has annexed various prescriptions, medical certificate and the medical bills.

3. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, we extend the Applicant's interim bail by a further period of four months from today.

4. It is made clear that the Applicant-Accused will not leave the jurisdictional limits of Pune, Pimpri and Chinchwad. The State shall verify the condition of the Applicant after a period of three months.

5. The Applicant shall furnish to the State all details of medical bills and all other details with regard to the medical treatment undergone by the Applicant.

6. The Criminal Application stands disposed of accordingly.
